

Privacy Policy

WeFi International AG

Switzerland

1. Principle

Based on Article 13 of the Swiss Federal Constitution and the data protection regulations of the Federal Government (Data Protection Act, DSG) and in accordance with GDPR, every person is entitled to protection of his/her privacy and to protection against misuse of personal data. Our company complies with these terms. Personal data will be kept strictly confidential and will not be sold or transferred to third parties. This Privacy Policy applies to WeFi International AG with its registered office in Zug, Switzerland.

2. Collection of personal data

We collect the personal data within the scope of our business activities. The data may be collected directly when establishing a business relationship or performing services through a contract. To the extent permitted, we gather certain data indirectly from publicly accessible databases (commercial registers, debt enforcement registers, KYC databases etc.) or receive such data from authorities and other third parties for the specific purpose of being able to conclude or process contracts with our service providers and customers.

Persons in question may have a duty to provide those items of personal information required to be able to commence and carry out a business relationship and fulfil the associated contractual obligations. We may ask our customers and business partners to provide additional information to be able to meet the relevant AMLA due diligence and other regulatory requirements.

3. Processing personal data

We use and process personal data to be able to operate our business and to provide our services, especially for the purpose of concluding and processing contracts with our customers and business partners, as well as for meeting regulatory and public interest obligations or mandates domestically and abroad.

In addition, we process personal data to the extent permitted by law, in which we have a relevant legitimate interest for the following purposes:

- Communication with third parties and processing their queries;
- Preventing and investigating breaches of AMLA regulations.

We do not process personal data for the following purposes:

- Advertising and providing information about our offers and services;
- Market surveys, media monitoring.

If our customer or business partner has given us the consent to process his/her personal data for specific purposes, we process personal data within the scope of and based on this consent, unless other legitimate grounds or another legal basis exist. Consent that has been given can be revoked at any time but has no effect on any data processing that has already been carried out.

4. Transfer of personal data

Personal data are neither sold or otherwise transmitted to third parties in any form, unless such transfer is required for the purpose of processing a contract, providing our services, or fulfilling our statutory tasks. In addition, data may be transferred to third parties if we are under obligation to do so by law or by an enforceable official or court order.

We may share personal data with trusted third parties to help us fulfil our contractual obligations and provide efficient and quality services. These recipients are contractually bound to safeguard the data we entrust to them.

5. Rights of the person in question

Within the scope of the applicable data protection law and to the extent required by the law, the persons in question have the right to information, amendment, deletion, the right to restrict the processing of data and otherwise to refuse permission to our processing of the data. Persons in question can ask us

- To verify whether their personal data are being processed and to provide more specific information;
- To correct our records if they contain incorrect or incomplete information;
- To delete the data after the consent to processing them has been withdrawn or when the data are no longer needed;
- To restrict our processing of personal data;
- To transmit the personal data to third parties.

Persons in question can withdraw their consent to collecting and processing personal data that was previously given. The revocation of consent shall not affect the legality of the processing carried out on the basis of the consent until revocation or after revocation if there are any regulatory requirements prescribing further processing or storage of personal data by WeFi International AG.

We reserve the right to enforce the restrictions required by law.
Concerns regarding data protection may be sent to:

6. Duration of processing and storage

Personal data are stored for as long as necessary to serve the purpose of the processing and data are deleted or blocked as soon as such purpose ceases to apply.

Furthermore, personal data may be stored if this has been provided for by the applicable law (for example, for accounting, AMLA compliance or mandatory archiving purposes). The data will also be deleted if a storage period prescribed by the applicable law expires, unless there is a need for further storage of the data for the conclusion or fulfilment of a contract. The data will be deleted as soon as they are no longer necessary to achieve the purpose for which they were collected.

7. Amendments

We may amend this privacy policy without prior notice at any time. Where appropriate, we will update you about amendments via email or in another suitable manner.
